A Letter from the Pope

NEW YORK, June 13—The Pope in his last ecclesiastical letter on Papal guarantees dated Rome, June 11th, says:

"We should declare solemnly through you to the whole world that not only what are called safeguards, and which are devised by the sub Alpine government, but that all titles, honors immunities and privileges of whatever shape they take under the name of safeguards or guarantees can be of no avail whatever toward securing prompt and free use of power divinely transmitted to the Chief Pontiff and toward guarding liberty necessary for the Church. Such being the condition of affairs as we have repeatedly declared and professed, without the crime of breaking our solemn oath at our enthronization, we cannot in no consultation which in any manner would destroy the rights of God and of the Apostolic See. So now as of our own bounden duty we declare that we will never agree to nor accept, nor can we so agree to or accept those cunningly wrought out safeguards or guarantees proposed by the sub Alpine government, whatever their decree, or any others of whatsoever kind or however ratified, which, under the form of securing our sacred power and liberty, shall have been offered to us in lieu of any exchange for that civil principality with which Divine Providence willed that the Holy Apostolic See should be furnished and strengthened and which is ratified to us by legitimate and irrefragable titles as well as by possession for more than eleven centuries. God grant also that the rulers of this earth, whom it much imports that such pernicious example of usurpation as endure may not take root and flourish to the destruction of all power and order, may join with one consent of minds and wills and that hurtful quarrels and disturbance of rebellions being appeased, and that counsels of sects being abandoned, they may unite in one movement for restoring to the Holy See its rights, and with those liberty to the visible head of the Church and desired protection to civil society."

Dispatch from London

LONDON June 13—The Times says the discussion in the House of Lords yesterday shows that the advantages of the treaty greatly overbalance the deficiencies. We admit that to yield everything to conciliate an opponent is unwise, but the American Commissioners also receded. The machinery of arbitration is satisfactory, and claims could hardly be settled better.

The Archbishop of Dublin is dead.

The English Press on the Treaty

LONDON, June 14—The Times in an editorial says the United States also made concessions. It is unprecedented that such grave differences should be settled without recurring to arms. The demand, consequently, for damages for injury to American commerce is unacceptable. It hopes Europe will rise to a higher conception of International fellowship.

The Telegraph says that Earl de Grey is created Marquis of Ripon in consequence of his distinguished services connected with the treaty.

The Standard says twenty one men were executed yesterday at Bois de Boulogne.

The Washington Treaty in Parliament

LONDON June 12—In the House of Commons, this evening, Gladstone in reply to a question, said the sixth article of the Treaty of Washington, prohibits the use of neutral ports for the renewal or augmentation of supplies to belligerents only when they are intended for use against other belligerents and not when exported in the ordinary way of commerce. The writer said the understanding on the part of President Grant and Schenck. It was understood however that on presentation of the rule for the acceptance by other powers the statement on the point should be clear. Gladstone stated that he had received the assent of the United States Government to his proposal to submit these principles of the treaty to European powers for their acceptance. He believed the prospective advantage to England would be immense and concluded by praising the tone of America throughout the negotiations.

In the House of Lords to day Lord Cairns in moving an address to the Crown against the ratification of the treaty of Washington, unless arbitrators were bound only by international and British laws existing at the time of the American war, argued that otherwise England might apply one rule and America another as the arbitrators still another. Ratification of the treaty might be demanded to secure peace, but it was, he argued a dangerous precedent, and an unwise neglect of duty of England to her American colonies when the sinking into ruin were sacrificed for the treaty was one-sided even about fisheries.

Granville said he accepted discussion but he did not accept Russell's motion and explained the circumstances attending the negotiation of the treaty, and declared its terms honorable and advantageous to Canada.

Lord Derby Earl de Grey and Lord Ripon Lord Cairnes, the Lord Chancellor and Duke of Argyle defended the treaty and the conduct of the negotiations. Lord Russell withdrew his motion.

After the Emperor come German princes and the victorious army.

All restrictions on the use by the public of the telegraph wires between France and Germany, except for the transmission of cypher messages will be removed on the 14th.

Queen Augusta is expected at Berlin to day.

Dispatches from New York

NEW YORK, June 13—At a meeting of bank officers in this city yesterday it was agreed to pay the dividend tax of the last five months of the year 1870 under protest, and consult the Boston and Philadelphia banks immediately as to future action.

The Tribune says the statement that the Russian Minister has written home a letter disparaging to Secretary Fish, is unfounded. The alleged letter does not disturb the relations between Secretary Fish and the Russian Minister which have always been cordial and no difficulty has ever marred them.

A Tribune special says: A special from Berlin says there are rumors of negotiations between the German and Swedish governments, with a view to internal relations that may result in a union of Sweden and Germany before many months.

The Silesche Zeitung says the rejection of the Swedish Hungarian union by the Legislature of Norway is a signal fiasco for projects of the King of Sweden, and for some time past has been the growing inclination in Stockholm to cultivate friendly relations with Germany.

A special from Frankfort says the number of invalids by the late war amounts to 1 200 officers and 112 038 noncommissioned officers and men.

Alsatians and Lorrainans, though they become invalid in the French service, will partic pate to a certain extent if they choose.

The municipality of Strasburg has received as the first instalment ten million francs from the Treasury for rebuilding houses burned during the siege.

The Bavarian government is now proceeding against the clerical agitators. Addresses have been sent by all the principal towns to the Government not to tolerate any stretch of authority in clergymen and to protect those in opposition to Archbishops.

A schism in the Catholic church is imminent.

New York News

NEW YORK June 14—The Governor to day signed the bill permitting the extension of the Brooklyn piers 300 feet into the East river from the bulkhead line, affording accommodation for lowering and discharging the largest ships.

The President arrived from West Point to day. He had a conference with Gen Butler, and left for Long Branch on the afternoon boat.

Severe Storm in Texas

GALVESTON, June 14—There was another storm yesterday, at 10 A M, and continued with great fury till midnight, destroying telegraph and railroad communication, and doing immense damage to the city and shipping. St Patrick's Church was blown down and is a total ruin.

British Proposition to Set up the Cuban Republic.

NEW YORK June 13—The Sun says: We learn from unquestionable authority that a proposition of the following nature was made by the British Government to the representatives in London of the Cuban Republic. England is willing to guarantee to Spain the sum of one hundred million dollars for the cession of the island to the Cubans, Cuba to bind herself to become bound to the United States for one hundred years from the date of her independence, control of Cuban custom houses to be given by Cuba to England as security for the loan until the latter shall be willing if the other West Indian Islands consent thereto to form one of a confederacy, consisting of all the Islands.

CANADA

HALIFAX, June 13—A meeting of miners was held to-day to consider the removal of duty on United States coal.

The Record reports on good authority that after the treaty of Washington has been ratified by the Queen, the naval command on this station will be reduced to a Commodore's ship, and not longer be a rendezvous for vessels. It also says that Sir John Hall, now a member of the Admiralty, will be First Commodore.

QUEBEC, June 14—Hon H L Langevin in a public address here to day, alluded to the treaty of Washington. He said that the Canadian Government energetically protested to the home Government against the clause concerning the fisheries. The reply was the British Empire required that the Commissioners should sign the treaty, but the right of the Dominion to reject the clauses affecting its interests was reserved. It remained for the imperial Government to show why the objectionable clause should be accepted, and the inducements there were for Canada to acquiesce in it.

TORONTO June 13—Sir James McDonald is expected here in a few days when he will publicly and fully define his position on the treaty of Washington, Gladstone having spoken and Parliament considered the bill.

SOUTH AMERICA.

KINGSTON, JAMAICA, June 12—Dispatches from Aspinwall are to the 9th inst.

The report of the loss of the Lord Clyde is untrue.

Small pox has broken out in Coquimbo and Guayaca.

Dates from Valparaiso are to the 11th ult.

The steamer Galvin was overdue and fears are entertained for her safety.

Emancipation of Slaves in Brazil

LISBON, June 13—Rio Janeiro dates to May 3d, state that the Brazilian Government presented to the Imperial Chambers a bill for the emancipation of all slaves belonging to the crown. This act, if it becomes a law frees thousands now toiling in the famous diamond mines, and also those engaged in the construction of docks and other public works at Rio de Janeiro Pernambuco and Mpranbam, besides a large force employed on the Government railways. The bill also releases convicts and slaves on the Island of Ferdinand de Noronha after seven years' servitude. Their owners will be indemnified from the Imperial Treasury. The bill meets determined opposition from conservatives in the Brazilian Senate, but the Liberals are strong and will be likely to carry it.

In the House, there is an overwhelming Liberal majority in favor of emancipation. The bill always has been a pet measure of Brazilian Democrats. The great objection to the measure appears to be not so much to the justice of the act, but its hasty enforcement. The law as it now stands, provides for the system of gradual emancipation for slaves belonging to private citizens only, while the Emperor's bill decrees immediate emancipation of all slaves owned by the Crown.

MEXICO

SAN FELIPE, June 5—The American Consul at the City of Mexico says there is strong rebel opposition in Guerrero against the Government forces.

The bombardment of Tampico continues. The rebels have inspired great terror by their fire, and have silenced the Government batteries.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13—This afternoon a plunger with two men left Market street wharf for Sausalito. It was swept out by the tide and upset off Lime Point. John Palm was drowned. Deceased was a bootmaker on Pacific street near Kearny. Leaves a wife and five children living in Sacramento.

Swanton a School History of the United States and his Word book were to day adopted by the State Board of Education for the public schools.

Practical tests of coal of Aleutian Islands received here last week show that it is of the finest quality ever found on the Pacific coast and geologists pronounce it the oldest deposit known on this side of the Rocky mountains if not on the continent. It is said it can be laid down here, all expenses included at $6 per ton.

All reports to the contrary notwithstanding, the friends of Gov Haight are satisfied that they have secured 200 votes in the State Convention beyond a possibility of doubt.

Mrs Capt Howitt, daughter of Mrs Clay at Mission Dolores, was thrown from a horse yesterday and terribly injured. The jaw was broken on both sides and the skull fractured. She is lying in a critical condition.

The steamer Gen McPherson is out on the bay this afternoon with the 39th parallel Pacific Railroad Directors and a number of American and English invited guests.

All Japaneso arriving by the steamer yesterday have adopted full American costumes already, and appear perfectly at home, except when going up and down stairs, which gets them badly.

Col Hanna, County Clerk, has applied to the Mayor and Board of Supervisors for permission to employ a special force to copy out the proceedings and evidence in the Fair trial, for the United States, in the appeal to the Supreme Court, in order to obviate delay, which might have fatal results.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14—Capt Dailey, who went out as sailing master of the schooner Francis L Steele, in February last, for the Cocos Islands, in search of treasure, under direction of the spirits, who communicated through Mrs Brown, who was captain of the vessel and general director of the expedition, has returned. The schooner encountered the most terrific weather on the down trip, put into a port in Central America north of Panama in distress, and finally reached Cocos, where a month was spent digging, first in one place and then in others, as the spirits directed for treasure but without success. Some of the party got sick, the rest discouraged, the spirits disgusted at the want of faith in the party and the expedition burst up. Capt Dailey left the schooner and party at Panama. Their funds having given out and their supplies and credit failed, he is rather unfavorably impressed with the enterprise.

Dispatches from Plumas, Calaveras and Trinity counties, received to day, say that the delegates to the Democratic State Convention from all of these counties are instructed to vote for Haight. It is rumored that since the primaries in Sonoma a number of delegates to the County Convention have been manipulated by the anti Haight party who have sent a large sum, rumor asserts $50 000 there, to operate with. About 100 persons, representing both wings of the party, have gone from here yesterday and to day, to assist in the Democratic primaries in Santa Clara county to morrow.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 15, 1871.

The Danger Demonstrated.

A writer in the Herald communicates his views on the situation in this city, as follows:

As you truly observed, Portland is the fat goose to which capitalists are looking for feathers with which to feather their nests. But instead of the Water Company working alone, as you imagined, there is a combination of blood-suckers formed that are hoping to capture and pluck that goose. Their plan, if possible, is to control the Democratic primaries and get their tools in nomination, and then expect the Democrats to help elect men who can be used to help plunder the very men who helped put them in power.

From this it appears to be well understood that corporation plunderers expect to accomplish their designs through the Democratic party. And why shouldn't they? They know that it was the Democratic party, as represented in the Legislature, that provided the opportunity for doing these things by amending the city charter so as to allow the city indebtedness for certain purposes to be increased to half a million dollars. Hence they naturally look to the Democratic party as the organization through which to carry out the remainder of the programme. The communication in the Herald is both a confession and a statement of an obvious fact. No assistance is expected from the Republican party for any of these schemes; the plan, according to the Democratic authority before us, is to use the Democratic party for the purpose.

A plain and practical interrogatory here presents itself, viz: Why should not all prudent citizens take a safe and prudent course, first, to follow those who are engaging in this jobbery or whose interests are tainted with it, and support the Republican candidates for the Common Council, against whom not even the Herald, partisan journal as it is, can adduce a single objection?

The Herald tells us there is danger that ... will get the upper hand, but that ... to the Democratic party that the people are to look for relief. This is singular, indeed, when it is known (at all events we have the Herald's word for it), that the Democratic leader in the Council is notoriously in the interest of the most oppressive monopoly of the city, and that an effort is to be made to re-elect to the Council another Democrat who acts as his echo and coadjutor. Singular it is that we are to "look to the Democratic party for relief," when according to the Herald the only danger to the city is that the Democratic party will be wielded by monopolies to base ends.

Again, is it not perceived that the Democratic party brought the city into its present danger? That party at the instance of the agent of the water company who holds a seat in the Common Council, procured the amendment to the charter which makes possible the jobs that our citizens fear. Singular, indeed, that under this state of facts we should look for security and integrity in our municipal affairs to the Democratic party!

An Atrocious Affair at Salem.

From a person who left Salem on the evening train yesterday we obtain an account of a shooting affair at that place. The account as we have it states that W. H. Watkinds, superintendent of the Penitentiary, having taken umbrage at something printed in the Statesman regarding the escape of Shultz, attacked S. A. Clarke, editor of that paper, with a cowhide, having at the same time a pistol with which to intimidate Clarke, or, in case of resistance on his part, to shoot him. When Watkinds began to use the cowhide Clarke drew a knife to defend himself, when the former fired two or three shots, one of which struck the latter in the side or back. How severe the wound was our informant could not learn. Mr. Clarke was placed in a carriage and taken home.

If anything could exceed this atrocity we cannot imagine what it is. By this act Watkinds has proven himself a bully, a lawbreaker a criminal, fitter by far for a cell in the Penitentiary than for a Superintendent over that institution. There is a special statute in the Criminal Code which prescribes a heavy punishment for even attempting to use a cowhide upon another, while having a pistol or other deadly weapon for the purpose of intimidation.

We have not heard whether Watkinds has yet been arrested, or not. Should the injuries which Mr. Clarke has received prove fatal the act of Watkinds would be nothing less than murder. When a man whose office is to have charge of criminals turns criminal himself and commits such an act of atrocity ... it surely time to visit the severest ... on an administration which ... most important affairs of the State ... such unworthy hands.

... Cincinnati Gazette speaking of Vallandigham and his "new departure" policy, says: "For the last ten years Vallandigham has made it his mission to knife the war Democrats. Has he taken a new departure from that? For all that time he has been determined that the party should not succeed by throwing him off. Has he departed from that? Is there any one that knows his disposition who does not know that Vallandigham would condemn the party to defeat rather than it should succeed without him? There is one rule from which the Ohio Democracy must not depart so long as Vallandigham has a voice, and that is the rule that he must have the leadership and his choice of victory. That is the condition of the new departure, therefore the condition of the new departure is nothing but the issue we have had for the last ten years. Vallandigham has two principles; greed for position and revenge toward every one who has not recognized his paramount claims. No one who knows him doubts that he means war to the knife to any Democrat who contests his Senatorial claims, and that if these are not allowed, he would derive a malignant joy from the Democratic defeat."

At the earnest solicitation of leading Republicans and tax-payers Mr. E. M. Burton has reluctantly consented to withdraw his objections to standing as a candidate for the Common Council in the First Ward and will allow his name to go before the people for that position. He should be elected and will be. Such a man in the Council is greatly needed at this time.

Apropos of "new departures" that high Democratic authority, the Cincinnati Enquirer, makes this suggestive observation: "It has been said that the Whig party in 1852 made their platform as near like the Democratic as possible. They died that year. That was their last appearance in politics."

The warring Democratic factions of the city made a desperate effort to fraternize yesterday. We shall see whether the "Oro Fino fellows" and the water monopoly will capture the recalcitrant Herald.

PERSONAL NOTES.

The Chicago Tribune says Speaker Blaine is a Roman Catholic.

Vice-President Colfax pays the largest tax in South Bend, Indiana.

The Empress of Russia is visiting the Empress and Emperor of Germany at Berlin.

Major Jack Stratmen of California has been appointed Receiver and Inspector, vice Charles A. Morse, in the Department of Yards and Docks, at the Navy Yard, Mare Island.

The late Senator Fessenden of Maine once made a remark which was interpreted as an insult to Mr. Seward. When informed of it, and seeing such a meaning could be given to his words, he instantly went to Mr. Seward and said: "Mr. Seward, I have insulted you; I am sorry for it; I did not mean it." Mr. Seward grasped him by the hand and delightedly exclaimed, "God bless you, Fessenden, I wish you would insult me again."

Democrats who clamor for free trade should know that the Treasury is not in a condition to relinquish the taxes they propose to cut off. Their performance must, therefore, mean one of two things—either that they are ready to increase internal taxation to compensate in part if not altogether for the loss which they would force in external taxation, or else that they are ready to drive the country upon the policy of repudiation! They may take which horn of the dilemma they please.

It is well observed of the "new departure" that it puts the Democratic party in the way of progress. The party begins by adopting the Republican measures of the last ten years. If it keeps on in this glorious path of progress, next year it will adopt the Ku Klux bill; the year after, anything the Republican party has accomplished. Thus its new departure in progress will be in the line of safe precedents.

A New Orleans paper relates a deplorable circumstance connected with the recent hanging of two Spaniards in that city. The merchant from whom was purchased the rope wherewith the dread sentence of the law was executed, was induced to witness the scene, which made a deep impression on his mind. An hour or so after he returned to his house the evening papers appeared, and while he was reclining in an arm-chair his wife read to him a detailed account of the execution. Suddenly he interrupted her by exclaiming in a frightened tone, "O, see them! I see them!" and scarcely had those words escaped when he dropped dead. It is stated that the deceased gentleman had for some time been afflicted with heart disease, and the impression which the scene at the scaffold made upon him had evidently hastened his death.

The progress of the Odd Fellows during the last seven years ought to satisfy the most ambitious of the order. The membership in 1864, according to the report of the Grand Secretary, was 39,543; in 1870 it foots up 86,150. The number of lodges in operation is 564, an increase of 63 during the past year; aggregate number of members 80,163, having increased 4,698 during 1870.

THE WIFE, both before and after she has become a matron, will find PLANTATION BITTERS literally a present help in time of trouble; and under her circumstance or condition can it prove otherwise than beneficial. During nursing it may be taken as an invigorant, with great advantage both to mother and infant; and, when maternal anxiety is awakened by the failing appetite, unnatural languor and general indisposition of a delicate daughter, there is no tonic or alterative which will work such a rapid and healthful change in the condition of the fair invalid as PLANTATION BITTERS. For the morning lassitude and depression of spirits, caused by late hours and what is called fashionable dissipation, there is nothing comparable to this famous vegetable restorative.

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN

OF THE

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.

Secured by First Mortgage on Railroad and Land Grant.

GOLD PAYMENT.

BOTH PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ARE PAYable in American Gold Coin, at the office of Jay Cooke & Co., New York City—the Principal at the end of 30 Years, and the Interest (at the rate of seven and three-tenth per cent. per annum) half yearly, first of January and July.

THE RATE OF INTEREST

Is a most convenient as well as profitable one, being seven dollars and thirty cents each year on every hundred dollars, or on the various denominations of bonds as follows:

Two cents per day on each.....$100 bond
Ten " " " .....500 "
Twenty cents per day on each.....1,000 "
One dollar " " .....5,000 "
Two dollars " " .....10,000 "

BONDS RECEIVABLE FOR LANDS.

By the terms of the mortgage the 7-30 bonds of the Company are always receivable, at par and accrued interest, in payment for the Company's lands at their lowest graded prices; and by the arrangement between the Trustees and the Directors of the Company, in all cash purchases of land from the Railroad, 10 per cent. discount will be made from the purchase price whenever the Company's first mortgage bonds are offered in payment. In other words, Northern Pacific 7-30's are, if desired, at all times convertible, at 1.10, into real estate at lowest cash prices.

These Bonds, principal and interest payable in American gold coin, are now offered for sale at par and accrued interest in Currency, thus yielding at the present rate of premium on gold, over eight per cent. gold on amount of gold investment.

It will be noticed that these Bonds may be used at the holders option as a LAND WARRANT, for the purpose of locating any lands which are granted to the Company at a premium of ten per cent meanwhile earning for the holder eight per cent per annum.

During the coming year it is anticipated that the Company will have equipped sufficient roads to entitle it to patents from the Government for 3,000,000 acres of land in Minnesota and 600,000 acres in Washington Territory. For sale by

KINKEAD'S

SAGE BRUSH HAIR TONIC AND CURE FOR BALDNESS

The Best Tonic Dressing for the Hair Ever Offered to the Public.

L. M. KINKEAD, Discoverer,

ELKO, NEV.

The Virtues of California and Nevada Sage Brush.

A RANGE WHERE SAGE BRUSH GROWS ABUNdant, is the first thing sought after by persons engaged in Stock raising, on account of its fattening properties. Meat, fattened upon it, possesses a finer flavor, and retains more of the natural juices, than that fed upon the grasses of the country. A chemical analysis of Sage shows it to contain about eighty-five per cent. of nutritious matter, such as go to make fat, etc. But it is not alone in regard to its great virtues as food for stock that we propose to speak; but in these days of hairbrugery, Quack Medicines, etc., any article that will supplant the many nostrums that are of no earthly use, by giving the needy a cheap, safe and certain article for the same purpose, is at least a saving to the community in that direction. We allude to the HAIR RESTORING qualities. For this purpose alone it so far surpasses the preparations usually found in Drug Stores, as to make them utterly valueless compared with the really restorative qualities it possesses; and will accomplish more in restoring bald heads, fastening falling hair, removing and giving healthy action to the scalp, than a whole store of the usual remedies advertised for that purpose. Hundreds now in Nevada can testify to this fact, and a trial will convince any doubting that what we say of it in this respect will be borne out by results, if he will give it a fair trial. The man who first brings the Sage Brush before the public as a Hair Restorative will not only drive every other preparation for that purpose out of the market, but will secure for himself a colossal fortune.—Elko Independent, Jan. 28th, 1871.

POLITICAL CORRESPONDENCE.

PORTLAND, June, 1871.

HON. D. C. LEWIS, Police Judge—Sir: The undersigned being fully satisfied with the manner in which you have discharged the duties of the office as Police Judge of this city, would respectfully ask you to become a candidate for election at the coming city election, pledging you their active, hearty support for said office.

Your answer is respectfully solicited.

J. B. Kellogg, L. Besser, J. H. Wilcox, Pat. Smith, E. Milwain, James Terwilliger, H. C. Leonard, I. A. Davenport, N. Losb, Chas. Hodge, T. J. Carter, S. J. McCormick, P. Van Fridagh, W. S. Ladd, Benj. F. Smith, J. L. Atkinson, J. A. Strowbridge, R. D. Shattuck, B. Goldsmith, Alex P. Ankeny, Walter Moffett, J. M. Gilman, G. W. Vaughn, C. M. Carter, Levi Estes, J. Mellenry, W. Koshland, J. M. Strowbridge, T. A. Savier, Chas. A. Burchard.

GENTLEMEN: Your note expressing approval of the manner in which I have discharged the duties of Police Judge of the city of Portland during the past seven months, is received.

I assure you, gentlemen, that indorsement coming, as it does, from among the heavy taxpayers of this city, without distinction of party, is a compliment which I shall ever cherish with grateful remembrance.

We have a quiet and orderly city, in which life and property are safe, a fact to which you can all testify. For this state of things I claim for myself but a small share of credit. That honor should be awarded to your very efficient police.

Permit me, however, to state the revenue derived from the Police Court during these seven months,

Payable into the City Treasury.....	$4,562 23
" " County Treasury	779 95
Amounting to.....	$5,342 23

Add the amount of license in which payment is enforced by the diligence of the police, and I may truthfully say that the Police Department is self-sustaining; the expenses of that department being about $1,000 per month.

You ask me to become a candidate for Police Judge. Gentlemen, with your words of encouragement before me, I would be pleased to submit my name to the consideration of the voters of the city of Portland at the coming election for the office of Police Judge, believing that if elected, with the few months experience, I would be better enabled to served the city in a manner much more satisfactory to you, in the future, than I have in the past.

But however strong my own convictions are that the office of Police Judge should be filled untrammeled by party obligations, yet I must acknowledge some allegiance to party, especially when their Conventions reflect the sentiments of the party in their choice for the various positions to be filled; in those cases an acquiescence in their decision seems the more prudent course.

Should the Republican party (with which I have been identified since its first organization) at its City Convention, see proper to nominate some other person than myself for Police Judge, and should the Democratic party nominate a life long Democrat for the same position, there seems but a narrow serpentine passage left, through which to ride into office—should the probabilities even seem fair for my election through that passage, it would be placing myself in a very unpleasant position—one not at all in accordance with my own feelings. It might again be the means of producing results that you would not desire.

Therefore, gentlemen, again thanking you for your kindness, I believe it my duty to await the action of the City Convention, and be governed accordingly.

Hoping that this course will meet with your approval, I am gratefully yours,

D. C. LEWIS.

Let Common Sense Decide.

What is the rational procedure in cases of general debility and nervous prostration? Does not reason tell us that judicious stimulation is required? To resort to violent purgation in such a case is as absurd as it would be to bleed a starving man. Yet it is done every day. Yes, this stupid and unphilosophical practice is continued in the teeth of the great fact that physical weakness, with all the nervous disturbances that accompany it, is more certainly and rapidly relieved by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters than by any other medicine at present known. It is true that general debility is often attended with torpidity or irregularity of the bowels, and that this symptom must not be overlooked. But while the discharge of the waste matter of the system is expedited or regulated, its vigor must be recruited. The Bitters do both. They combine aperient and alterative properties, with extraordinary tonic power. Even while removing obstructions from the bowels, they tone and invigorate those organs. Through the stomach, upon which the great vegetable specific acts directly, it gives a healthy and permanent impetus to every enfeebled function. Digestion is facilitated, the faltering circulation regulated, the blood reinforced with a new accession of the alimentary principles, the nerves braced, and all the dormant powers of the system roused into healthy action, not spasmodically, as would be the case if a mere stimulant were administered, but for a continuance. It is in this way that such extraordinary changes are wrought in the condition of the feeble, emaciated and nervous invalids by the use of this wonderful corrective, alterative and tonic. Let common sense decide between such a preparation and a prostrating cathartic supplemented by poisonous astringent like strychine or quinia.

Lucille's Mistake

The visitor bidding her adieu,
I took my hat and bowing low, withdrew
Then starting hon eward soon I missed my cane
Retraced my steps and rang the bell again
I heard a rush—the door flew open wide—
And with a bound Lucille was at my side
Around my neck her lovely arms she threw,
Kissed me ye gods she kissed me through and through.
Stock still I stood not daring to return
The glowing kisses that my lips did burn
I tried to speak and gasped I clean forgot—
I left my cane She started as if shot,
And cried with sobs she vainly tried to smother,
"Oh dear oh dear I thought 'twas Dan, my brother!
What shall I do" she asked me o'er and o'er
I lacked the courage to say, "Do it more"
So looking sheepish, seized upon my stick
And forthwith homeward trotted double quick
When un my couch in vain I courted sleep,
I tossed—and pondered, What a wealth of love
That girl possesses, other girls above
And if a brother she should hold so dear
How must a husband to her heart appear
The idea grew and—well, to cut the tale,
I sought her often, and to such avail
That ere a twelvemonth its full course had run
I wooed, I won her—and we twain were one
And once I told her "what my love began
The night she kissed me in mistake for Dan
"Oh Dan!" said she "Why bless your stupid head
Poor brother Dan was safe and snug in bed"
You didn't know it!" "Why, of course I did,"
And in my breast her blushing face she hid.

* * * * *

Through all these years I did not once regret
My having fallen in the trap she set.
We, and I said happy, too, I've made her—
Through all times I laughingly upbraid her
And then she says, "The moral dear, of this is,
That girls don't often make mistakes—in kisses

Democratic Discord

The Cincinnati Enquirer, the most prominent Democratic paper in Ohio, declares against the "new departure" It says.

The great landmarks of constitutional liberty must be adhered to by the Democratic party, or it ceases to be a Democratic party And when they are abandoned the Democratic party had better disband and a new organization be formed, with a new name and modern principles Let not the old and honored Democratic party be clad in strange garments, with the ashes of humiliation on its head and cowardice in its look Let it never be buried in the same grave with the old name of public, and rest under a common tomb stone on which shall be inscribed only "1776"

Columbus Crisis, a paper which heretofore has been enthusiastic in its support of Vallandigham, now repudiates him and his new scheme for fishing himself into the United States Senate. It says

There are certain uneasy bodies among the leaders of this country who are never so comfortable as when they are unhappy, and who, seeming to sacrifice all relationship to principle or self interest, totally misapprehend the conditions of their own rough waters. There are those of fierce and their own who rest upon the waves of office, and those who hold asunder the sweet graces of virtues for success. Success, in the estimation of these gentlemen, consists less in the assertion of principle than in the accumulation of profits and empty honors of official position. By what rule of honor or justice such men can be coupled with the pretense of adherence to principle, we admit our inability to conceive. To scuttle the ship and transfer its flag to the enemy may belong to such tactics as have recently come in vogue, but we confess an aversion to them not to be overcome by a transitory respect of success

Mr Vallandigham, for whom this paper cannot claim the honor of having any prejudice, has seen fit to make the most violent bolt in the direction of party disintegration that any member has yet ventured upon This astonishing sentiment has been heralded in all the sensational papers as a new departure and the absolute transfer of all the interests of white men to the enemy—the ancient swearing at the Ohio Democracy to some ambitious bedizened bankrupt shoddyite contesting for a gilded house The infatuity that could sustain a proposition so preposterous is not far removed from the insanities that suggests the grossest violation of the true principle and the tamest arguments to the dirtiest fraud.

* * * * *

We meet Mr Vallandigham to parse or to defend, not as a general reptile in his bosom, and abandon him to the mercy the adherents that cheer him to the echo of principle when it was more dangerous than now but if he so chooses, he may go and feed on he carries with him none of the strength that sustained him when support was in money and devotion the synonym of destruction

Such new departures we want none—their stink is the worst war—and we venture to commit a great party to such idiosyncrasies in behalf of that treacherous deity, success, unless in its component parts no frenzy of the fanatic to the silliness of the baby.

[illegible] but reflections of the general sentiment of the Democratic party all over the land

How Democrats Encourage Immigration

The following extract from a speech delivered a few days ago at Lexington, Ky., by Hon [illegible] Harlan, Republican candidate for Governor illustrates how Democrats, not only those of Kentucky but of the Southern States in general, encourage immigration

In 1865 or 1866, after the conflict of arms had ceased a company was organized in the city of Louisville by some of the most prominent and wealthy Germans in that city The object was a petition to the Legislature of Kentucky asking that body to give us a little and we would ask the name of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to incorporate a company composed of honest men sent into the interior of the State to disseminate correct information as to the advantages and location in the State of Kentucky, and especially around the city of Louisville and we will do what we can to induce those honest and industrious foreigners to come to Kentucky and make their homes there And, fellow citizens, if you have made any observation on the subject, you have come to the conclusion that a better class of population could come from any country in the world The Legislature made an appropriation of $5,000 a year for five years making $10,000 altogether But the Legislature didn't want any freedom-loving Dutch [Laughter.] They said No, clearly after what do we find them doing The family of a colored person in Kentucky were murdered in cold blood [illegible] such was the fact, because such was the testimony I state that which all men in the county of Lewis will say, that it was a bloody and inhuman murder Two years after to the family of a colored man 65 years of age, his wife being 60 years of age and his mother 90 odd years of age, and how did them to pieces, as a man would divide a They were tried in the federal court convicted to be hung What does this say to the commonwealth do? What does your Legislature do that prates about economy and a love for people's money, do? They authorize the Governor to employ Jerry Black, a distinguished lawyer of this State, and others, to go to Washington and represent Kentucky in that case before the Supreme Court, and in this case is over you will find that in the light that Kentucky may keep its word with men of distinguished lawyers—and it ought to keep its word—at least $10,000 will have to be appropriated from the public treasury [illegible] $10,000 to encourage immigration to the State of Kentucky from Germany, [illegible] had $10,000 to employ distinguished lawyers to go to Washington in that case, upon the idea that the honor of Kentucky was involved in that case

A writer in the St Paul Press tells the following huge strawberry story He says he has seen scores of miles of country a degree latitude north of Fort Totten, which was an almost continuous growth of wild strawberries, growing, in many of the richer spaces, not on horizontal vines, but on bushes, many of them three and four feet high, on which the clusters of this delicious fruit attained a size rarely reached by assiduous cultivation So profuse was this native production of strawberries on what is called the Pembina Mountains, that the cart-wheels, crushing the berries as they revolved, were perfectly red with the wild vintage of the plains and left long crimson trails, as of blood, behind them.'

A patient complained to his physician that he was pursued by a ghost the night before, as he was going home from the tavern. "What shape was it?" asked the doctor "In the shape of a jackass," said the man "Go home," replied the physician, "and keep sober. You were drunk last night, and frightened at your own shadow!"

"You say," said a Judge to a witness, "that the plaintiff resorted to an ingenious use of circumstantial evidence, state just exactly what you mean by that "Well, said the witness, "my exact meaning is that he lied"

Why Women Fall

A writer in a late Eastern paper makes these observations

The "social evil" is not confined by a great deal, to the places where it exists in its more public manifestations, says a writer in a Chicago paper Some time since, having a curiosity to ascertain if the "personals" in the Sunday's Tribune were bona fine, and if so, what was the character of those thus advertising I answered four of them In due time I received replies, with the following results 1—A widow who keeps a boarding house on Michigan avenue about twenty years of age, with one child No 2—A young lady on Wabash avenue near Twenty-second street, about 32 years old No 3—A widow on one of the "courts between Wabash and Michigan avenue, about thirty-two years of age, with three children No, 4—A married woman, with a sickly husband and no children All wanted about the same thing—a friend who could assist them—the young lady and the married lady spoke of dress particularly

So much for that one experiment, which I assure you is perfectly true. Now the organ of this class of people is publishing these "personals" all the time—especially on Sunday. The facts I have related go to show that the "evil" is fearfully prevalent all over the city, and indicates a state of morals not of the most favorable kind.

One result of my investigation on the subject, is to lead me to the conclusion that the passion for dress and display is the cause for a larger portion of this evil than any one thing I am thoroughly convinced that more girls are seduced in a life of shame through a desire to keep up with the times in fashionable attire, than in any other way. In fact, I believe that three out of every five enter the gate that leads to, destruction through the wiles of the tempter—Fashion

The women themselves, therefore, who run not in the extravagance of dress are primarily more chargeable, in my opinion, with the existence and extension of the "social evil," than are the men.

The Northern Vallandighammer Democrats are reading out of the party all the dear southern brethern who will not take the new kind of political castor oil, as administered in the so called new departure For instance, this is the way that the Philadelphia Day makes Robert Toombs walk Spanish, "Robert Toombs, the bucolic gentleman who earned a General's commission in the confederate service without risking his precious person within range of bullets, is out in opposition to any acceptance of the situation by the south He will cut all men who talk of dead issues or compromise He has, therefore, scratched the name of Vallandigham out off his books, and will soon erase the names of most of the Democratic leaders north from his tablets We cannot help thinking that had General Toombs fought as bravely as Longstreet, he would to-day be willing to accept the constitution as it is, and bow to the inevitable As it is, he is a political orphan. He repudiated the constitution as it was, and he will not have it as it is He is out of his sphere Mexico is his forte. Go to Mexico, General."

NEW YORK AND THE WEST—Each succeeding year shows more conclusively than before, that New York city is not to increase much as a grand distributing depot of foreign importations for the West A law has already been passed providing that imported goods may not be delayed in New York for the collection of duties, but be shipped directly west, even before the amount of duties is ascertained. This encourages the great western cities to import direct from Europe, instead of buying from New York importers, and the time is not far distant when the eastern metropolis will become a way station on the great lines of international commerce between the West and the continent of Europe, just as she has made all other American cities way stations on their own railways for all goods coming from the interior

"James," said a young wife to her husband a few days after marriage, "you were honest enough to tell me that the chimney smoked, but why didn't you tell me that you smoked yourself?"
